Bowling Green State University

Founded: 1910
Location: .....Bowling Green, Ohio
School Type: .....Public 4 year University
Total Enrollment: .....20,500 students (450 International)
Student-Faculty Ratio: 18:1
Accreditations and Rankings: .....Accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools
Ranked in National Universities
Accommodation: .....Dormitories and Apartments
School Mascot: .....Falcons

About

Bowling Green State University (BGSU) is a well-respected public university offering over 200 undergraduate courses of studies and a wide variety of masters and post-graduate programs.

BGSU was recently recognized by US News and World Report as one of "America's Best Colleges" for excellence of undergraduate education in three categories — a strong commitment to teaching, first-year experience programs and learning communities.

Students at BGSU benefit from an outstanding faculty team that links real-world experiences to the curriculum. In addition, the university is currently constructing major new buildings and state-of-the-art classrooms.

BGSU sponsors hundreds of school clubs and organizations and has a diverse athletic program and Greek system.

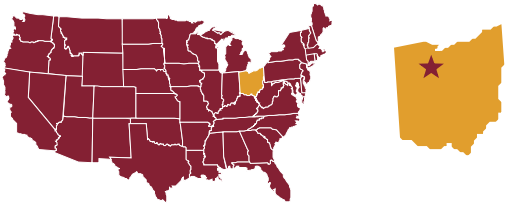
BGSU
Bowling Green State University

Popular Majors

Accounting, Biology, Business, Communications, Computer Science, Education, Journalism, Psychology, Sociology, Visual Arts

Location

Bowling Green State University is located close to the city of Toledo in Northern Ohio and is a short drive to other major cities in the area such as Cleveland and Detroit.

Bowling Green is a very safe small college town with a thriving arts and cultural scene. The campus is a short walk to downtown where students can enjoy the many shopping and dining options.


Bowling Green experiences 4 distinct seasons allowing for a variety of outdoor activities ranging from hiking and swimming to skiing and ice skating.