About

Cal State San Marcos was founded in 1989 as a campus of the California State University system - the largest system of public higher education in the world. This is a campus of new buildings, the latest in computer technology, cutting-edge science labs, and a sense of excitement about the future.

The outstanding faculty comes from across the U.S. and worldwide and students can enjoy small classes and personal attention. The emphasis on active learning includes a "senior experience" for business students that gives them real-world experience, service-learning and internships in many programs, and undergraduate research programs.

Cal State San Marcos offers over 100 student organizations and 10 different athletic teams for both men and women.

Popular Majors

Biology, Business Administration, Communications, Computer Science, Human Development, Pre-Law, Pre-Med, Psychology

Location

California State University San Marcos is located in North San Diego - the heart of coastal southern California. San Marcos is a small, safe, suburban city about 50 kilometers north of the city of San Diego and 150 kilometers south of Los Angeles.

Just a short distance from the campus you will find California's most beautiful beaches, mountains, and deserts where you can swim, surf, hike, bicycle, and ski. The San Diego region offers what is probably the best climate in the United States.

San Marcos is also well connected to both San Diego and Los Angeles offering students the opportunity to explore all of the attractions and cultural sites of these exciting cities.
