

Green River Community College

Founded:1963
 Location:Auburn, Washington
 School Type:Public 2 year Community College
 Total Enrollment:10,000 students (1000 International)
 Student-Faculty Ratio:30:1
 Accreditations and Rankings:Accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities
 Accommodation:Homestay and Student Apartments
 School Mascot:Gators

About

Green River Community College is a two-year college located near Seattle. Students choose Green River for its lower cost, quality education, small classes, dedicated faculty, friendly staff, and on-campus housing.

Green River offers two-year degrees, Intensive English, University Transfer, and a popular High School Completion Plus-dual degree program. Green River also offers 3, 6, or 9 month study abroad options designed to provide flexibility and opportunities for self-discovery and academic development.

Green River has a reputation as a leader in nationwide University Transfer. Green River’s international students have been admitted to top, world-ranked universities including: University of Washington, Berkeley, UCLA, Cornell, Johns Hopkins, Indiana University, Purdue, University of Michigan, University of Texas-Austin and many others.

Popular Majors

Architecture, Art/Design, Biology, Business, Chemistry, Communications, Computer Science, Education, Engineering, English, Journalism, Mathematics, Pharmacy, Pre-Medicine, Public Relations, Sociology, Speech

Location

Green River is located in suburban Auburn, Washington – a favorable location within 45 minutes of either Seattle or Tacoma.

The campus is a great environment for study with 140 acres filled with evergreen trees, wooded trails, and new facilities. Students can enjoy the many options for outdoor recreational activities such as hiking, bicycling, and swimming.

Green River offers convenient, fully-furnished, on-campus student apartment housing – a unique feature among American community colleges and one that is very popular with the students.

