About

Lock Haven University's philosophy is "Small College Lifestyle, Big University Education" and this spirit is very evident on the campus with over 95% of graduates either employed in their career field or enrolled in advanced degree programs. LHU is part of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE), which is famous for its quality education and rigorous academic standards.

At Lock Haven, students can take advantage of over 70 undergraduate and graduate programs in a Liberal Arts setting. Students enjoy modern educational facilities and small class sizes - features that allow students to thrive academically and become successful leaders.

The University sponsors over 130 clubs and organizations for the students to participate in. In addition, the University has 8 different intercollegiate teams competing in NCAA divisions I and II athletics.
