About

Solomon Christian School (SCS) is a 7th – 12th grade boarding and day private school in Edmonds, WA. U.S. and international faculty form a rich community that seeks to nurture and encourage students as well as educate them. The student body is comprised of local students, often coming from home-schooling, public or private schools, as well as international students transferring from their home countries.

SCS provides a full academic curriculum with an emphasis on preparation for college and university level work as well as an intensive ESL program for international students. Students are also provided with a customized academic plan starting from enrollment at SCS to college admissions, including college advising. Since 1994 nearly 100% of our SCS graduates have gained college admission. In addition to academics, SCS sponsors student activities from athletic clubs to special-interest clubs to community service opportunities. Student housing is available in our dormitory or through local homestays.

Curriculum

Every student at SCS is given an individualized academic plan and college advising to help guide them in their path towards their academic future. There are a number of organized activities and student clubs including: Art Appreciation, Basketball, Bowling, Drama, Film, Key (Community Service), Praise, Ski/Snowboard, Soccer and more.
